Two Hundred Citizens Are on Hunt for Escaped Murderer.

MUSKOGEE, Okla. May 10.—A posse of 200 citizens Monday afternoon was combing a wooded section of miles northeast of Eufaula, Melatosh county, where Lester Clark, an escaped prisoner who Saturday shot and killed Jailer Jack Hunter in a break for liberty at Eufaula, is believed to be hiding. Officers do not believe Clark will be taken alive.

Clark's wife and two brothers inlaw, Hale and Ed Taylo, are under arrest at Eufaula today charged with complicity in the murder. They are alleged to have smuggled into the fail the automatic pistol with which Clark shot Jailer Hunter.
